Chess is a board game for two players. It is played in a square board, made of 8X8=64 smaller squares, with eight squares on each side. Each player starts with 16 pieces in black and white colour: eight pawns (Soldiers, placed on the second ranks), King and to its left is Queen, then two bishops (camels) on either side, then two knights (horses, placed either side of Bishop), then two rooks (elephants placed on either corner after the knight on flanks). White shall move always first. The goal of the game is- each player to try and checkmate the king of the opponent. Checkmate is a threat ('check') to the opposing king, which no move can stop. It ends the game. Remember king is never killed. Otherwise Porus would have killed Alexander before the battle of Jhelum in 326 BC, when he came in disguise for treaty.
